2nd March 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

This year our First Eucharist Family Night will be held on Tuesday the 20th of March. Father John and Amanda Browne will facilitate the evening. During the evening we will be encouraging you to engage in conversations with your child and one another about this special Sacrament that your child will be receiving.

The session will be held at 7pm at St. Bernadette's Primary School in the Year 4 area.

All students who are receiving their First Eucharist, together with their parents MUST attend this session as it is part of your child's faith development. All Year 4 children and families are welcome to join us.

Childcare for other siblings will be available on the night at the same venue.

Please complete and return the form below indicating how many people will be attending on the night.

Please indicate the number of children who require childcare, so that they can be catered for and also if you feel you may need an interpreter.

Thanking you and we look forward to seeing you.
